

Who we are looking for?

- You are student of the third year of bachelor's / engineering and master's studies and graduates of an IT studies
- You are technology geek with solid IT background:
  - knowledge of selected programming language (Python, Java, Groovy, Node.JS, .Net Core)
  - knowledge of git, bash, basic networking such as https, sftp
  - knowledge of SQL, data modelling
- REST, SOAP, XML rings a bell? Knowledge e.g G-Suite (or other) APIs will surely ease your life during training.
- If you already know a bit about distributed systems/cloud solutions – that's great – you will have occasion to present it throughout the course! Exercise will be open – awaiting your creativity!
- You need to read, write and speak English (min B2)
- You are available at least 30 hours a week in case of the permanent work

Why?

- You will see what are the latest trends and challenges in the area of System Integration
- You will get to know the work of an Architect and Integration Developer from the inside out
- In a short time you will gain competences and the possibility of certification, currently sought after on the labor market
- A job offer awaits the best participants